DETAILED ACTION

This office action is in response to an amendment filed 5/24/07. Claims 1-26 have been cancelled. Claims 27-30 are pending and under examination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112, first paragraph

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claim 30 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

This is a new rejection necessitated by applicants' amendment.

The limitation that the method of producing mature MANF2 comprises "cleaving amino acids 1-26 of said expressed protein" in the cell. Applicant has stated that support for this limitation is found in the specification specifically in example 6, which teaches that the signal sequence is cleaved between amino acid 26 and 27. However, examiner has been unable to find support in the originally filed specification or example 6 for a step of cleaving the amino acids of 1-26. Rather, the specification teaches that cleavage is a consequence of cellular factors that mediate the reaction. Therefore, the limitation that the method of producing a polypeptide comprising cleavage of amino acids 1-26 is impermissible NEW MATTER.

Double Patenting

A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101, which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

Claims 27 and 29 are provisionally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 7 and 8 of copending Application No. 11/330,359. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

This is a new rejection.

Response to Argument

It is acknowledged that applicants' will address the provisional obviousness double patenting rejections upon indication of allowable subject matter. However, until the recited claims are patented or a terminal disclaimer is filed, the claims remain rejected.

Conclusion

Claims 7, 8, 27, 29 and 30 are rejected.

Art Unit: 1633

Claim 28 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
